FORUM #2

Our Scope & Workplan:

1. Inventory existing conditions and uses, gather data, create base map
2. Community input
3. Schematic Plans & Review
4. Assess economic impacts, positive and negative
5. Preliminary Cost Estimate
6. Implementation Plan: phasing, funding, easements and permits

PUBLIC FORUM #2 GOALS:

1. Acknowledge work to date (various efforts).
2. Find the collective wisdom of the Camden community.
3. Your opportunity to tell us you know what you think is best but also to hear your neighbors.
4. Working knowledge and input for the Design Team.

Central Mountains Land Preserves
 Central Mountains Land Trust (CMLT) permanently conserves land and the natural and human history of western Penobscot. To get most information about Mounts, Bull Mountain, Middle Mountain, and to view detailed trail maps and guides, visit CMLT's website: centralmountains.org, or call 234-7091. CMLT's office is at 101 Mt. Sable Street in Penobscot and is open Monday through Saturday 9:30AM to 5:00PM.

Site 22 Boat Ramp (Megunticook Lake)

The Megunticook Lake Boat Ramp provides easy launching to the lake. The entire area is paved with marked parking. The launch ramp's large concrete block construction is easy and safe. The ramp has a long paved dock out to sea. Megunticook Lake is great for power boating, jet skiing, and fishing. Jet Ski's are prohibited on the lake and swimming is prohibited at the boat launch.

Getting there: From Village Green, proceed north on Route 1

Boat Bridges Boat Ramp (Megunticook Lake)

The Megunticook Lake Boat Ramp provides launching access to the lake. The launch area is paved and the launch ramp's large concrete block construction makes entry and exit easy for boaters. The ramp has a long paved floating dock for boat to set up. Megunticook Lake is great for power boating, jet skiing, and fishing. Jet Ski's are prohibited on Megunticook Lake and swimming is not allowed at the boat launch area.

Land's End (Megunticook Lake)

Megunticook Lake is ideal for a day out on the water. Spend a day exploring its many coves, rocky shorelines, two-level islands, and open water. The lake is home to Bald Eagles, Loons, Canada geese and many other birds and ducks. Put in or out of the public launches — the Route 52 Boat Ramp or the Boat Bridge Boat Ramp on Route 135. Then, head for Land's End Park, a 118-acre nature preserve sitting just into the middle of the lake. Land's End has several beautiful, secluded bays with access to land and water. Enjoy an hour of swimming in the cool waters, sunning on the rocks, or looking for eagles flying overhead. Fees and permits are available upon time on the
